

NATIONAL 30-KILO, ALBANY, MARCH 28TH

Rodgers sets world record 1 hr. 29 min. plus some seconds. Fleming and John Dimick followed with Amby (1:33:26) beating Vitale for fourth. All these fellows should be at the trials. They belong there.

VERNON RABBIT RUN, APRIL 16TH

Gerry Chester burnt the pack of over 150 runners with a 22:09 for a tough 4.2-Mile jaunt. Gerry charged up the course's notorious hill to open a wide lead on the nearest competitor. There was only one thought upon glancing back, "All I got to do is hang on." And he did just that with a 40 second victory. Lou Free Sr. ran 32 minutes to lead in "Tag" Tagliapetra and Jack Riley. All three are Masters.

FROM ELLA

Governor Ella Grasso was informed recently by State D.O.T. Commissioner James Shugrue that the State Traffic Commission "will work more closely with racing officials to assure reasonable safety standards while not hampering the Amateur Athletic Union's extensive road racing program, which is a source of enjoyment to many of our citizens."

SHORTS

Tremayne Richard Thoma joined Walt & Sandy Thoma on April 15th. . . There's no threat; he has Walt's feet. . . Westerly Track Club will host summer runs, probably Monday's at 6 p.m. . . Westerly also has tremendous organization with a number of chairmen, etc. . . The Voluntown X-C race in late July will include the Conn. Masters' X-C Championships. Three place medals in a 40's division and a 50's division. . . Post Rose Arts at Tim's.

ROSE ARTS RACE

The Club hopes to defend, but will be hard pressed to best the prior two years' winning scores which it tallied. In '74 the Club scored an unbelievable 16 points and in '75 a comparable 20 points. Its a tough record to beat. But this is the group to do it. Post-race festivities and race analysis at Tim's after.

TIM'S GRINS

"When competitive spirit fails, a disorganization or loss of control takes place which appears to others to be physical in nature. They say, 'He tied up.' But they might better say, 'His mind lost control.'" by J. Kenneth Dougherty

THINK ROSE ARTS!
