The scoop of the day

Rumors persist of unattached runners

Brandon Catel RON: Unattached runners have been sighted in the Norwich Connecticut area. This reporter learned of the phenomena thru an unnamed source who, reportedly was attached to the movement aimed at attaching the unattached.

Thane Nivik, seen here running unattached, prefers the segmented mode as it allows him to compete in several events simultaneously.

Invitation Leaked

Tribune Scoop

Charles Wagon RON; It was learned today that an invitation to a highly secret and speculative meeting is planned for the near future. The Tribune learned through an anonymous source, of the secret meeting at John Martin's house. The purpose of the meeting is currently unknown, according to our source. The Tribune has also discovered that an individual using the name John Martin has, in the past been involved with paint and chisels and possibly the meeting will concern a new development project. Sources also speculate that the reported meeting could be associated with the medical community, as the invitees are believed to be very thin, with unusually long legs. Some are believed to be unattached.

This man was seen leaving the scene of an altercation at the Town St. Barber Shop. He reportedly asked for a Page Boy and left the shop with a Forest Lawn haircut.
